Library & Recreation

Reimbursement Application

The city's industrial base has provided a longstanding ability to reimburse citizens for library and recreation services. Albany public library membership fees, fees associated with programs (recreation and senior programs) provided by Albany Parks and Recreation, and fees for recreation programs provided by IRS Internal Revenue Code (IRC) 501 (c) (3) corporations. The city has a maximum of $80.00 per household on an annual budget calendar year (FY) for library membership fees and 80% of fees and up to $200.00 maximum for recreation services provided by the list below.

Reimbursement of said expenses shall be limited to the approved budget funds each fiscal year. Only those reimbursements in which the expenditure(s) has occurred in the current budget fiscal year will be considered.
